If We Don't Go, They Won't Know

Ice Breaker Questions

- Visit funattic.com/76-fun-icebreaker-questions.htm for ideas
- What was the high / low point of your past week?
- If time allows: [Ask a follow up question from the previous weeks study.]

Key Questions

- What's one idea from the message that really stood out to you? Why did this grab your attention?
- Elder Coleman said, "The mark of a great church is this. If you moved out of the community – would anyone notice?" This truth can be applied to our lives as well. When it comes to loving our neighbors, if you were to move would anyone notice?
- What steps might you need to take to begin to represent God's light in dark places?

Optional Questions – If needed, include one or more of these scriptures and questions to extend your conversation.

- Read Matthew 5:13 aloud. Salt is used to preserve and pull out flavor. What does it mean for a believer to lose his or her "saltiness" in the world?
- Read Matthew 5:14-16. This is where the name for TheCity.church comes from. What do you think it looks like to be a "City on a Hill" in every day life?
- Read Romans 10:12-14 aloud. This verse shows the role we have in representing Jesus to the world around those so that they can place their trust in Him. Is there a person, or multiple people, in your life that you believe the Lord has placed in your life to represent Jesus to? If so, how are you trying to demonstrate God's love to them?
- What challenges or fears do you face when it comes to telling others about Jesus or inviting someone to sit with you at church?

Next Steps

- Pray, by name, for the people God has placed in your life to be salt and light to. Pray that they would place their faith in Jesus and they you would have boldness to let your light shine.
