The Other Half

Principles of a Princess Warrior

Ice Breaker Questions

- What was the high point of your past week?
- What was the low point of your past week?
- If time allows: [Ask a follow up question from the previous weeks study.]

Key Questions

- What's one idea from Sunday's message that really stood out to you? Why did this grab your attention?
- The story of Ruth has many themes. One of those themes is, "God is our redeemer". How has God redeemed your life? Where are you still praying for healing or redemption in your life?
- How do you hope to encourage the women in your life to step into their calling to be a Princess Warrior? (Ie: Mother, sister, wife, daughter, friends…)

Optional Questions – If needed, include one or more of these scriptures and questions to extend your conversation.

- Read Ruth 1:8-16 aloud. These verses show two different responses to difficult situations. After the loss of their husbands, Orpah returned to the god's of her past. Opposite of this, Ruth became even more committed to worship the God of Israel and was eventually blessed for this decision. How do you respond to difficult situations? Is there a temptation to return to the way you lived before Jesus? Is it easy to trust God with your future? Why?
- Jasmine shared about the importance of running the same spiritual race with our spouse. If single, what should you look for as a spiritual quality in the people you date? If married, how can you encourage your spouse to grow? What should a Christian do if their spouse isn't following Jesus?
- Do you have a "person of wisdom" in your life? What have they taught you about being a Godly man or Godly woman?
- Is there someone in your life that is looking to you to set the example? If so, what impact do you hope to have on them?
