

Ice Breaker Questions

- What was the high / low point of your past week?
- Recap: How did you take time to enjoy relational margin this past week?

Key Questions

- What's one idea from Sunday's message that really stood out to you? Why did this grab your attention?
- Ps Blake shared that moral margin is "the distance between you and temptation" and for many people "the margin is missing". How have you seen your life or the life of someone you know impacted by sexual sin?
- When it comes to temptation, the best resistance is greater distance. What is your next step to create distance between you and temptation? How will asking the question, "What is most pleasing to God" impact the way you live?

Optional Questions – If needed, include one or more of these scriptures and questions to extend your conversation.

- Ps Blake shared that the first step in creating moral margin is finding a new normal, because today's normal isn't working. In what ways does the world's view of morality conflict with God's view?
- The second step to creating moral margin is building better boundaries. What are some of the defenses and safeguards you have in place in your life that help put distance between you and sin?
- What do you think sexual sin is such an easy trap for most people to fall into?
- Ephesians 5:5 explains that immorality, impurity and lust are rooted in idolatry. Idolatry is worshipping a created thing over the Creator (God). How does this spiritual truth impact your view of sexual sin?
- Read Galatians 6:1 aloud. This verse teaches us to how to restore fallen believers. It reminds us to stay humble in the process because we all know what it's like to be tempted and fall. How can people such as this City Group, friends, family or spouse help you live life with moral margin?

Next Steps

• It Is Written: We are starting a new series titled, "It Is Written" this Sunday. This series is about experience Bible in a personal and powerful way. You are invited!